Wine country is synonymous with romance, and it's time to get to know the Tasmanian wine industry more intimately. Boasting the title of the oldest vineyard on Tasmania's east coast, this hidden-gem winery has a rich legacy of producing high-quality, handcrafted wines that embody the essence of Tasmania. Grower Glenn will personally guide you through the vineyard, where he'll share the techniques behind the careful nurturing of the vineyard's grapes. Next, kick back and savour the fruits of Craigie Knowe's labour with a guided wine tasting in the original homestead overlooking the beautiful vineyard and surrounding landscapes. Wines are carefully selected to complement an assortment of seasonal pairings, creating a perfectly curated experience that's so much more than a wine tasting; it's a journey into the heart and soul of Tasmania's winemaking heritage.

Touring experience: Freycinet Air Tours

It's time to take to the skies for an exhilarating scenic flight with Freycinet Air Tours. Step aboard your private helicopter and soak up the mesmerising aerial beauty of Tasmania's east coast. Hold your loved one's hand tight during the pinch-me moment where you'll soar above the snow-white sands and turquoise waters of the famous Wineglass Bay. Marvel as the late afternoon light turns the granite of The Hazards into shades of peach and crimson, while the sun slowly sinks beneath the mountains. A truly dreamy experience that's sure to leave you both feeling sky-high.

EVENING

Join us for dinner at Palate Restaurant at your leisure. After dinner, return to your suite, grab a bottle of House of Arras sparkling from your minibar (or a nip of one of Tasmania's famous single-malt whiskies) and head down to Muirs Beach. It's the perfect setting to share a blanket, lie back together, and lose yourselves in the beauty of the constellations - a moment of stillness, connection, and wonder.
